Evil Queen joins annual Princess Tea

by Carlie Morgan, Reporter

The school cafeteria was flooded with tiny princes and princesses as Seasons put on their annual Princess Tea on March 3-5. The members of Seasons and Pitch Black, the high school's select choirs, donned their best ball gowns, took on the role of a Disney prince or princess, and put on a show for the children of the community.

Each year Seasons writes a new version of the Princess Tea to keep the kids and their families coming back for more, and this year they decided to switch things up a bit with a new, unanticipated character- the Evil Queen.... (cont. at cphswolfpack.com)

Swim Takes Record Number to State

by Victoria Sananikone, Reporter

The swim and dive team wrapped up their season at the 2017 5A state meet at the University of Texas on Feb. 17-18. The team brought 13 swimmers to state, along with four alternates. Although sophomore Dominic Toledo-Sanchez was sick a week before state, he still had positive things to say about the meet and about his team.

"I was able to get close to my best times and make it into A finals in all of my events including the relays," Toledo-Sanchez said....(cont. at cphswolfpack.com)

Track Prepares for District

by Jordy Peterson, Reporter

Track has been preparing for their district meet on Apr. 12-13 at East View High School. Since mid January, they have been practicing nearly everyday for several hours after school.

"Track season is pretty exciting this year," sophomore Sophia Roach said. "We have an awesome group of girls that care so much for each other and make track meets fun. We have been doing very hard workouts to help prepare us for districts. We are also making sure we are getting the right amount of recovery to make sure we don't get injured."

Many athletes are participating in track to keep them conditioned for other....(cont. at cphswolfpack.com)

PROM Expectations Contract Elicits Different Reactions

by Anjali Sundaram, Reporter

The "PROM Expectations — Contract" has stirred a conversation at CPHS, eliciting different reactions from students. Some students appreciate the contract, as it warrants them a safe night. Others detest the contract, pronouncing it unneeded.

Prom committee president, senior Lexxi Clinton welcomes the contract, as it will prevent students from making bad decisions or suffering because of someone's choice.

"In light of Shattered Dreams and the rate at which young adults die from drunk driving, the school should enforce the actuality of a drug and alcohol free prom," Clinton said.

The contract was created and implemented by the administration as a result of issues in previous years...(cont. at cphswolfpack.com)
