Celebrities Make Their Way to Nationals After Spring Break

by Emilee Guernsey, Editor-in-chief

After two successful weekends of competition, the Celebrities will head to Nationals in Galveston on Mar. 24-26. Their preceding dance meets were located in Waco and at Vandegrift High School, where the team won an abundance of awards.

“This season has been so rewarding,” senior Celebrities captain Hannah McQueen said. “We put in so much work into 2-3 minute routines, so it’s great to see all the hours of before and after school work pay off.”... (cont. at cphswolfpack.com)

TimberTeach Rolls out Program

by Avery Deen, Reporter

In an attempt to increase their student outreach, the TimberTeach program has decided to rebrand themselves and create a new system in which the student teachers can go directly to the students in need of aid. This new roll out will be happening after spring break and tutors will be ready and available to meet the demands of those requesting aid using the new system.

“We are evolving to meet the needs of the students,” senior Miranda Van Doren said. “In the future we really hope that this program...(cont. at cphswolfpack.com)

Sloey Takes Fifth at State

by Victoria Sananikone, Reporter

The wrestling team took three to the state competition on Feb. 24-25 in Houston and brought back a fifth place state medal.

Senior Nathan Sloey made it to day two of the tournament, wrestling a total of five matches and ending with the fifth place state title. Junior Chigozie Onyia won his regional match, but was defeated on day one of the tournament, as was junior Levi Russo-Bell.

“I think our team did well considering none of our state competitors have nearly as much experience as some of the opponents we had to face,” Onyia said. “If there was a valuable lesson I learned from wrestling this year, it’s that hard work and confidence can get you a lot further in whatever you dedicate yourself to....(cont. at cphswolfpack.com)

Students Advance to Internationals in DECA

by Anjali Sundaram, Reporter

On Feb. 24-26, DECA traveled to San Antonio to compete in the state competition. Four out of the 15 students qualified for Internationals, otherwise known as ICDC.

Seniors Brittany Ballou and Avery Daniel are advancing to Internationals for Fashion Merchandising and senior Sagar Kansara and junior Greg Phea are advancing in Independent Business Plan. Alternates are: senior Chris Burleson for sports and entertainment marketing and senior Luke Williamson for Fashion Merchandising. Williamson, however, had an unique case in qualifying as an alternate....(cont. at cphswolfpack.com)
