A New Kind Of P.A.C.K.

by Sydney Miner, Reporter

With the negativity thrown around on the news and our society, the P.A.C.K, which stands for People Advocating Caring and Kindness, was founded earlier this year by seniors Mason Brooks and Trajaan Chase to promote positivity in the school.

The idea for the organization came about when they were sitting in the parking lot of Trajaan's apartment complex. After seeing all of the negativity around them, they started chatting about what they could do to make a difference.

"From that, we went and talked to Mr. Sloan and discussed what we could, thus the P.A.C.K. was formed," Brooks said. "We saw a divide in the CP family and decided to make a change....(cont. at cphswolfpack.com)

Halloween Party Animals

by Deana Trautz, Reporter

Livestock isn't the only lively thing about FFA. Along with their monthly meetings on every third Tuesday, the group has annual holiday parties such as their Halloween party on Oct. 17. Bringing the students together, FFA played games such as Wrap the Mummy and Musical Chairs.

In addition, each member decorated a mini pumpkin with paint markers, which they will be donating to the Wyoming Springs elderly home in Round Rock. Along with pumpkins, FFA will be donating blankets to homeless people in November.....(cont. at cphswolfpack.com)

Feeling Empowered Behind the Screen Now Results in Harsher Punishment

by Deana Trautz, Reporter

Cruel words used to be at the tip of our tongues, but now they are at the tip of our thumbs.

David's Law creates a protocol for cyberbullying among all of Texas, when before it was the school's individual responsibility to enforce policy specific to online bullying. It now does not matter whether one posts from school or from home, if it is reported, the student can be faced with consequence....(cont. at cphswolfpack.com)

The Wandering Wolfpack Goes to Mr. Boba

Staff Editorial

...If you do decide to visit Mr. Boba, make sure to ask an experienced boba tea drinker for drink recommendations. For first timers, I would advise going with a group and getting popping boba (a safe bet) and trying a sip of tapioca boba from a friend. This way you may be able to avoid experiencing the dark side of boba. For the entire article and a video of the adventures, visit www.cphswolfpack.com.

Perry's Puns
